

Directed by Pino Di Buduo

PRESENTS

INTERCULTURAL FESTIVAL LABORATORY OF THEATRICAL PRACTICES

in collaboration with I.S.T.A. International School of Theatre Anthropology directed by Eugenio Barba

from 7th July to 16th July 2023

FLIPT – Intercultural Festival Laboratory of Theatrical Practices organised by Teatro Potlach of Fara in Sabina (RI), directed by Pino Di Buduo, is now in its 23rd year.

A rich and very intense programme for this edition: ten days of workshops, performances and dialogues dedicated to the encounter and creative exchange between different cultures of the performance.

This year the confrontation will take place between artists from South Africa, Greenland, Iran, Brazil, Norway, Greece, Ukraine, Denmark and Italy, who will bring their own contribution to the festival by sharing their personal theatrical experience.

From 7th to 16th July in Fara Sabina and in the neighbouring municipalities, international pedagogues will take turns in conducting workshops dedicated to the direction of performance and the basic elements of the actor's stage presence in Eastern and Western cultures.

Programme*:

From 7th to 9th July

Masterclass with Eugenio Barba and Julia Varley

From 10th to 14th July

Workshop "Harlequin and his secrets" with Enrico Bonavera (Italy)

From 10th to 16th July

Workshop on the construction of the show "Invisible Cities" with Teatro Potlach

15 and 16 July

Show "Invisible Cities" with all Festival participants

Also:

Intensive Ukrainian singing workshop with Maria Vanieieva (Ukraine)

Every evening will feature performances by companies from all over the world, including:

- Barba Varley Foundation (Italy)
- Centre For Creative Arts (South Africa)
- Nunatta Isiginnaartitsisarfia National Theatre (Greenland)
- Clube de choro de Londrina (Brazil)
- Majsternya 55 (Ukraine)
